here that some elderly fellow was supposedly to have cwned back in 1886 or 1875, Mr. John often talked about it and he lived in a cave back there.

Q. I'll be durn.

BY ATTORNEY ROBERTS:

In a cave.

]()

18

j9

20

21

・ソ・フ

23

.) [

25

26

·) - (

28

A. In a cave back in the hills and Mr. John often talked about it and this property he bought from then a Baker three and a quarter (3 1/4) or three and a half (3 1/2) acres off of the front of facing the Flint Hill Road and the rest of this property then after this fellow left then Baker told him if he paid the taxes on it he could have possession of the property.

Q. Of the rest of it?

A. Of the rest of it and this included then the whole parcel then that Mr. Tom owned.

Q. I see.

A. See?

Q. Uh huh.

A. And, the reason I didn't buy was because that Tony Smith had then bought this up, that part of this parcel that Mr. Tom wanted to sell me of one and a half (1 1/2) acres would, three-quarters (3/4) of an acre would come off of each...

Q. Each of those two (2) sides?

A. Two (2) parcels so I didn't buy it.

To the property and the

Q. Do you have any idea of the name of this person who was supposed to have lived back there in the cave?